

Results released by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC)

Returned ballots were counted on 25th October 2011

Question 1.	YES	NO	INVALID	TOTAL	SWING%
R& D levy to be set at $0.0098/kg	73	138	2	213	66% -
Question 2.
Marketing levy be set at $0.02/kg	58	153	2	213	73% -
Question 3.
PHA subscription levy
Be set at $0.0002/kg	82	129	2	213	62% -

A total of 304 registrations to vote were recorded and duly sent a ballot paper.

91 registrant's failed to return ballot papers. Or 29.93% not returned

7 ballots were incorrectly returned (not signed as per AEC instructions)

213 ballots were counted, 2 ballots were deemed invalid (incorrectly completed)

The Summerfruit Board have noted the will of levy payers, however the Board express concern at the negative vote for the Plant Health Australia annual subscription renewal not to be paid from Industry R&D levies. In the longer term the Board caution Industry that there will be a greater degree of instability as a result of the overall levy vote.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ian McAlister", written over a horizontal line.

Ian McAlister,
Chair Summerfruit Australia Ltd
28th October 2011